

TABLE 1:
PROGRAM LOGIC – INDIGENOUS EVALUATION AND INDICATORS FRAMEWORK OVERVIEW

Short Term Outcomes Based on NATSISPS

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Greater community awareness, leadership, action and responsibility for suicide prevention in communities.</li> <li>• More culturally responsive services and interventions are developed and implemented</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Local support and community prevention initiatives across the lifespan supporting early child development, young people</li> <li>• Prevention initiatives build on family, community strength</li> <li>• Counselling and therapeutic support and treatment for bereavement and trauma provided by ACCHS</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Well-coordinated, culturally appropriate targeted specialist services available for and accessed by high risk groups</li> <li>• Targeted services linked to culturally competent, integrated and community based preventive services</li> <li>• Skills to identify and treat children and families complex needs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Shared responsibility across government, private and non-government sectors to build mentally healthy workplaces</li> <li>• Greater alignment and collaboration between all jurisdictions and sectors</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increased suicide prevention training and research for and by Indigenous people</li> <li>• Improved identification, reporting methods, measures and standards for reporting self-harm and suicide</li> <li>• High quality research: evaluation evidence and population level and distribution data on suicide available</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Timely data and evidence to improve responses and services</li> <li>• Culturally appropriate, evaluations tools; methods; approaches to support suicide prevention implementation and continuous quality improvement (CQI)</li> <li>• A National strategy for SEWB and MH workforce implemented</li> <li>• Validated clinical assessment tools and referral pathways in place</li> </ul>
Building strengths and capacity in Indigenous communities	Building strengths and resilience in individuals and families	Targeted suicide prevention services	Coordinating approaches to prevention	Building the evidence base and disseminating information	Standards and quality in suicide prevention

NOTE:

Action Areas are Sourced from the NASISPS.